

1ST ANNUAL WOMEN'S HEALTH RESEARCH DAY

April 25, 2006, 8:00 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.

Comprehensive Cancer Center, Conference Rooms 2 A & B

AGENDA

- 8:00A.M. Registration, Refreshments & Poster Viewing
- 8:30A.M. Introduction
- 8:45A.M. “Prenatal Events - Postnatal Consequences” - James C. Rose, Ph.D., Professor, Department of Obstetrics & Gynecology-Maternal-Fetal Medicine, Physiology & Pharmacology Director, Center for Obstetrics & Gynecology Research
- 9:30A.M. “The Study of Women's Health across the Nation (SWAN), a multiethnic, longitudinal study of the menopausal transition: New insights into menopause” - Nancy Avis, Ph.D., Professor, Department of Social Sciences & Health Policy; Director, Cancer Control
- 10:15A.M. Break & Poster Viewing
- 10:30A.M. “A Faith Community-Based Domestic Violence Prevention Program in Forsyth County, NC” - Alison Snow-Jones, Ph.D., Assistant Professor, Department of Social Science & Health Policy
- 11:15A.M. “Modeling Breast Cancer Risk in Nonhuman Primates” - J. Mark Cline, DVM, Ph.D., DACVP, Associate Professor of Pathology and Comparative Medicine
- 12:00P.M. Lunch Break & Poster Viewing
- 12:15P.M. Lunch Presentation: “The Brain as a Target for Sex Steroids”
Special Guest: Sarah Berga, M.D., James Robert McCord Professor and Chair, Department of Gynecology and Obstetrics, Emory University School of Medicine
- 1:15P.M. “Active Living across the Lifespan” - Melicia Whitt-Glover, Ph.D., Assistant Professor, Department of Epidemiology and Prevention
- 2:00P.M. “Genetics of Estrogen Action” - David Herrington, M.D., M.H.S., Professor, Department of Cardiology
- 2:45P.M. Break and Poster Presentation Award
- 3:00P.M. Panel Discussion - “Women's Health Research at WFU: What are the Opportunities and Challenges?” Moderator: Claude Hughes, M.D., Ph.D., Executive Director, Medical & Scientific Services & North American Strategic Medical & Scientific Director, Quintiles-Solvay Partnership
- 3:30P.M. Adjourn